CSC-Oath of Office

July 1, 2011, the new set of the College Student Council for the academic year 2011-2012, with their passion and willingness, promising the students of Microcity Computer College Foundation Inc. to uphold their duties and responsibilities made their oath of office at the college library.

The program started with a prayer from Mr. Ishmael James Naca, Instructor from the Computer Science Department and a welcoming remark from the Guidance Counselor, Ms. Lerma G. Gerella which is then followed by a warm message from the College Administrator, Ms. Carmen M. Mallari who ends her speech with “I don’t wish you good luck, but I wish you God bless” with a high hope for the next set of the college student council.

After that the Vice President down to the Representatives made their oath of office, followed by the farewell address of the outgoing CSC Vice President, Ms. Aiban Rose Alvarez. Then the new CSC President Ms. Lome Lynne Avila made her oath of office.

Ms. Lome Lynne Avila delivered her inaugural address as the new CSC President after the CSC mace which symbolizes the authority of the council was then transferred to the new officers from the outgoing officers. Ms. Avila asked for the support from the student of the MCCFI for the success of the events that the council will handle depends on their cooperation and involvement. Ms Avila’s reign for Presidency at the student council is very historical for she is the second women who made it to where she is and the third College Student Council President.

“Love, Human Sexuality and Planned Marriage”

Students from Microcity Computer College Foundation Inc. actively joined the powerful “Love, Human Sexuality and Planned Marriage” seminar held on July 06, 2011 at MCCFI Library.

The seminar aimed to develop and enhance the management and self-awareness of all college students through dynamic, interactive and enriched discussions and this was conducted by the Provincial Population Office.

With the topic ‘Love, Human sexuality and planned marriage’, the half-day discussion seminar kicked off with speaker Mr. Danilo Perez, officer-in-charge of the Provincial Population Office, inspired the participants by saying his contribution in helping others and for being such a good leader.

Mr. Perez also added today’s youth have already forget the value of showing love to their parents. Mrs. Rosana Verdida was the one assigned to discuss the topic about ‘love’. The topic includes discussions about, ‘What are the different kinds of love and how to manage a relationship?’

On the other hand, Mrs. Mila Buensoceso gave the information about planned marriage and pregnancy, pre-marital sex and lack of self-awareness. Mrs. Buensoceso also informed the students on how to plan a perfect marriage including the right family planning.

The students became more active when the discussion on human sexuality had started. They actively participated on answering the given questions about the male and female reproductive system including its function. The discussion was led by Mrs. Verdida.

After the discussions, the students were given a chance to ask questions and answered by the speakers afterwards.
